

TRIVIA NIGHT

AND SILENT AUCTION FOR VACATION, NEW LAPTOP, TICKETS AND MORE!

Sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega To Benefit Sarah Jane Smith

Sarah Jane Smith has rare severe epilepsy known as Dravet's Syndrome. She was born without complications April 10, 2001. At 5-months old, she began having seizures. A five-hour long seizure in March 2004 devastated Sarah's brain. She was not expected to survive.

Sarah has come a long way since then, small step by small step. The proceeds of this fundraiser will go to Sarah's medical fund, which is used for Sarah's needs, including therapy, doctor and medication expenses, supplies and equipment, and to start a Special Needs Trust for Sarah's future care.

Checks can be sent to this address:

Alpha Phi Omega, Busch Student Center,
20 N. Grand, St. Louis, MO 63103
Attention: Katie Karpinski

FOR TAX DEDUCTABLE DONATIONS:

Make your check payable to
Alpha Phi Omega Delta Delta
Include a note that it is for Sarah's Fund
Include a request for a receipt letter, and SASE.

Thursday May 1, 2008

Doors Open Promptly at 6:30

Trivia Starts 7:00pm

$15 per ticket or $150 per table

Silent Auction For Great Values

Price of ticket includes a parking voucher for parking in the Hickory East Parking Lot.

For Reservations Call 314-977-1557

WHERE: Allied Health Building on
Saint Louis University Medical Campus
Third Floor Multipurpose Room

DIRECTIONS: From Grand Boulevard, travel East on Choteau and then South on Theresa. The parking lot (Hickory East) is at the very end of the street (cul-de-sac) on the left. The Allied Health Building is directly in front of the garage.

Cash Prizes for 1st and 2nd place!!

Silent Auction – with great items

"What's In Your Purse!!" "Heads or Tails!!"

Mulligans!! 50/50 Raffle!!

Feel free to bring your own snacks. Snacks Available for a Small Donation.

No alcohol may be brought in but will be available for purchase.

Please come for fun, and to benefit little Sarah Jane!

www.TheSarahJaneStory.com